

Which of these areas do you need to work on?

- Do you take time together to ensure Jesus and His mission are first in your marriage?
- Do you need to pay better attention to your husband or your wife?
Or do you ignore them and not really listen to them?
- Do you even know what their needs are right now?
Have you asked?
- Do you show as much affection as you used to?
Or have you let this area of your relationship become boring?

Describe one thing you can do to put Jesus & His gospel 1st this week?

Describe one thing you can do to pay more attention to him/her...

Describe one thing you can do to show more affection to him/her...

Pray this:

“Dear God, I/we want our marriage to keep growing. Help me/us to keep you first in our relationship and the spread of your gospel our greatest ambition. Help me/us to pay better attention to each other. Help me/us to do the things we did at first that got our affections red hot for each other. I/we ask You to give us a love that lasts a lifetime. In Your name I/we pray. Amen.”
